REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

- ReadyCap Lending, LLC v. Alexander, Land Court 17 Misc 000384 (Jan. 19, 2018) (prevailed in a matter of first impression involving the Homestead statute where the Court held that the current version of the statute applies even though the homestead was recorded prior to its enactment)
- Bevilacqua v. Rodriguez, 460 Mass 762 (2011) (represented post defective foreclosure purchaser of property; successfully reaffirmed rule that a defective foreclosure deed operates as an assignment of the mortgage)
- Solans v. McMenimen, 80 Mass.App.Ct. 178 (2011) (represented a lender in a dispute over the priority of liens in a case where the Court found that a real estate attachment was broad enough to reach an unrecorded interest in property)
- Cummings Properties, LLC v. Kathleen Dwyer, Chapter 7 Trustee of Admetric Biochem, 284 BR 1 (2002) (successfully represented the Chapter 7 Trustee in a dispute with the debtor's former landlord in a dispute over the enforceability of a liquidated damages clause which the Court found to be unenforceable)
- Perez v. First Option Mortgage Corp., MA Bankruptcy 08-40693-JBR, Adv Proc. No. 08-4081, 2008 WL 4164372 (successfully represented lender in obtaining dismissal of adversary proceeding on the grounds that the Court lacked subject matter jurisdiction)
- Albion v. YMCA Camp Letts, 171 F.3d 1 (1999) (obtained dismissal of admiralty claim on the grounds of lack of personal jurisdiction over the Defendant)
- Daka, Inc. v. Service America Corp., 201 F.3d 426 (1998) (prevailed on summary judgment in a breach of contract action which finding was affirmed on appeal)

- Marsman v. Nasca, 30 Mass.App.Ct. 789 (1991) (successfully represented family member against a claim that a fiduciary relationship existed creating a constructive trust)
- Cassell v. Mueller, 1992 Mass.App.Div. 178 (successfully represented employer in a claim brought by former employee for unpaid commissions)
