Rich May Client WorkCare Acquires Medical Services Contractor HPM Corporation

By: Rich May

April 2023 – Rich May, P.C.’s long-time client WorkCare, Inc. completed the acquisition of the medical services contractor HPM Corporation, effective April 1, 2023.

HPMC Occupational Medicine Services has been meeting the health and medical related safety needs of more than 8,000 Department of Energy (DOE) and site contractor employees in Richland, Washington and the 200-West Area of the DOE Hanford Site as a prime contractor since 2012.

WorkCare provides innovative employee health management solutions to employers in all types of industries under the direction of occupational medicine physicians, industry subject matter experts and information technology professionals.

The acquisition aligns with WorkCare’s strategic business development strategy and involves plans to continue to provide best-practice occupational health services to the Hanford Site workforce in compliance with DOE requirements.

Rich May attorneys Stephen M. Kane, Arvid von Taube and Claire Grace assisted WorkCare in all aspects of the acquisition, including negotiation of the terms of the letter of intent, the stock purchase agreement and all ancillary documents.
